DENISE COTE, District Judge:

In his November 29, 2021 petition, Edward Abreu ("Abreu") represented that his trial counsel told him that he "could not file a[n] appeal" of his conviction. As described in the Opinion issued today, the Court has found by clear and convincing evidence that Abreu's trial counsel did not tell him that he could not file an appeal of his conviction. In support of his petition, Abreu's current counsel appears to present a new argument, specifically, that prior counsel did not consult with Abreu adequately about his right to appeal. Accordingly, it is hereby ORDERED that any submission by Abreu regarding his trial counsel's failure to consult with him adequately regarding his right to appeal is due September 20, 2024. If Abreu does not wish to pursue such an argument, he shall promptly notify the Court.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that the Government shall respond to the defendant's submission by October 4, 2024; any reply by the defendant is due October 11.
